Bio for City Council

November Teen of the Month

Jessica has a good GPA, and is very involved in the community. She is the Student Association Religious Vice and a recent recipient of the $500 Caring Heart Award and the $500 National Service Scholars Award. She was also featured on KQCA-TV 58 in a Kids Helping Kids Segment.

November Honorary Teen of the Month

Scott and his family have been active in the Lodi Community Church for the past three years. Scott is always willing to help out in projects and has often given hours of service to the church. Scott has also been very active in high school drama and is a leader in that area of the school. His manner, behavior and actions are a credit to our community.
